

It is never too early... to prepare your child for a lifetime of learning.

Join us for a night of learning and fun!

Presented by SASD educators, the SU Literacy Center and SU reading students

How? Attend "Ready, Set, Go!", an early learning program with games and activities for children and workshops for their parents.

Who? Parents and children (ages birth to 5)

When? April 13, 2010 from 5-7 p.m. (registration begins at 4:45)

Where? Nancy Grayson Elementary School
301 Lurgan Avenue, Shippensburg

PARENTS OF BIRTH TO 3 YEAR OLDS

- Reading Together: Sharing the joy of Reading with Your Child
- The Importance of Patterning Skills to Reading

PARENTS OF 4 & 5 YEAR OLDS

- Kid Writing: How and Why We Write In Kindergarten
- A Walk Through The Kindergarten Day

FREE
giveaways, dinner &
childcare!

Funding provided by the

drew michael taylor foundation
www.drewmichaeltaylor.org

Although the program is free, registration is requested by calling James Burd Elementary School at 530-2780 or Nancy Grayson Elementary School at 530-2770 by April 9.